Steiger Craft 21 Peconic

Boat Type: Pilothouse

OVERVIEW

The Peconic Bay lies between the North and South Fork of Long Island, New York, and is divided by Robins Island into the Great Peconic Bay on the west and Little Peconic Bay on the east. In these waters clams, oysters and bay scallops are numerous while striped bass, fluke, bluefish, porgy are angler's top catches.

Generations have cruised the back bays and estuaries of Long Island in search of the water's bounty. This tradition is what the Steiger Craft 21 Peconic is all about. The perfect shallow draft seaworthy vessel designed with easy fishability, performance and quick clean-up in mind. The 21 Peconic's 14 Degree Deadrise Modified V assures a very stable fishing platform and drift.

Like all Steigers, the 21 Peconic features a large cockpit, with dual helm seats and Pilot House enclosure for a comfortable dry ride.
